REPORT OF THE PROCEEDINGS

—OF THE—

23rd ANNUAL MEETING

Held at the City Hall, Victoria, B. C., on Friday, Feb. 28th, 1896, taken from "Colonist" of the following day.

THE Annual General Meeting of subscribers to the British Columbia Protestant Orphans' Home was held yesterday at the City Hall, the attendance being somewhat limited, but including among others the following true and faithful friends of the Orphanage: Rt. Rev. Bishop Cridge, Mr. Charles Hayward (in the chair), Messrs. A. C. Flumerfelt, James Hutcheson, John Jessop, Charles Kent, L. Goodacre, and W. J. Dowler, Mrs. Kent, Mrs. Hayward and Mrs. Hutcheson. Immediately on the conclusion of the routine business, the Annual Report of the President, Mr. Hayward, was read as follows:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—In presenting the twenty-third annual report of this institution, the committee of management desire to thankfully acknowledge the liberal support given to the home during the year, and the kindly manner in which their special efforts for the maintenance of destitute and orphan children have been received. The internal management of the home by the ladies' committee, whose efforts have been so faithfully supported by our experienced and excellent matron, has been all that could be desired. In the report of 1893 the cost per capita was given at $77.00; in 1894 the cost per capita was carefully estimated at $71.56, and the minimum was then supposed to have been reached. This year, however, by the excellent management of the ladies and the exercise of the greatest vigilance against any approach to extravagance or waste, and by the purchase of supplies on a cash basis, the cost per capita has been still further reduced to $69.92, a most excellent showing and one which it is thought is the very lowest limit that can be reached.

Allusion was made last year to the unfortunate loss sustained by the failure of Green, Worlock & Co's bank, by which all our current funds were exhausted, besides leaving liabilities to a considerable amount. During our present financial depression it was deemed hopeless to attempt the liquidation of this amount by voluntary contributions, and it was therefore arranged to call a special meeting of the subscribers, as authorized by the constitution, to consider what steps should be taken to relieve the burden. At this meeting it was agreed to sell the old orphanage property on Rae street and wipe off the debts, and failing in that, to secure a further sum on mortgage at a rate not exceeding 7⅓ per cent. interest. No approved offer having been received, a mortgage of $2,500 was arranged at the low rate of 6½ per cent.

As far as known, all the liabilities of the home (except the combined mortgages of $9,500) have been paid in full to January 31, 1896, including all the running expenses of the month, and a balance of $750.94 cash now remains in the treasurer's hands towards carrying on the work of the year. We hope, however, that our friends will not suppose that having $750 in hand their generous assistance can be modified or relaxed. It should be borne in mind that the major part of the yearly subscriptions are received in December and January of each year, and have only just been collected; that the cost of maintenance goes on from day to day; and that if even the present rate per capita can be continued, at least $3,700 will be required during the year, without any provision for unforeseen contingencies.

At the commencement of the year the success hitherto attending the division of the varied work of the managers induced them to provide for a special standing committee on finance, and the following were named:

Mr. E. C. Baker (Chairman), Mr. James Hutcheson, Mr. Noah Shakespeare and the Secretary, Treasurer and President (ex-officio.) The result has been more satisfactory, and it is hoped that a similar committee will be continued by our successors.

The Honorary Treasurer's financial statement, which will be laid before you, recalls several pleasing features. The local subscriptions compare favorably with those of the last four years, while the large sum collected in Nanaimo through the kindly efforts of Messrs. Robins and Potts is very encouraging; we hope the example thus set will be followed by similar support in other places. The home is designed for British Columbia and the needy and unfortunate are received within its sheltering fold entirely without regard to locality. Among the list of donations are notably the united efforts of several young ladies in raising the sum of $204.75, a charity ball from which $486.50 was received per Mrs. D. W. Higgins, a garden party of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church at the residence of Mrs. John Teague, which netted $30, a garden party at the residence of Mrs. C Vernon, which realized $204, and an excursion per steamer Joan, kindly furnished gratuitously by the Messrs. Dunsmuir & Sons, which netted $134.60. Other welcome donations are thankfully acknowledged in the Hon. Treasurer's and Matron's reports. To Dr. G. L. Milne, Dr. John Lang and Dr. T. J. Jones for kindly rendered professional service, our especial thanks are due; as also to the Directors of the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital for receiving without charge three orphan children requiring special surgical treatment.

There are at present in the home 24 boys and 29 girls, all of whom are in excellent health. During the year the following changes have taken place:

Number of inmates at last report		54
" " admitted during the year		21
Total		75
Number of inmates placed in service	4
" " died	0
" " taken out by friends	18
	—	22
Total now in Home		53

It may be noted that during the last two years there have been no bequests or legacies to the home. It is suggested to those whose duty often calls them to make disposition of wealthy testators' property that the orphans might then be kindly remembered, bearing in mind that the institution is supported entirely by voluntary efforts and without any state aid.

It has been the faithful desire of those to whom the sacred trust of providing for these orphan and destitute children has been confided, while looking closely after their material comfort and welfare, to adhere closely to the principles laid down at the outset "that these little ones are to be trained for usefulness in the present life, and for immortal glory in that which is to come." We firmly believe that our humble efforts in this direction have been successful and have received the blessing of Almighty God.

CHAS. HAYWARD,
President.

HON. SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Reports of the President and Hon. Treasurer so fully cover all items of interest in connection with the Home during the past year, that the Secretary has only to mention a change of Hon. Treasurer, necessitated by the retirement of J. Hutcheson, Esq., after seven years faithful service, and the unanimous selection of A. C. Flumerfelt, Esq., as his successor.

JOHN JESSOP,
Hon. Secretary.

These reports were received with expressions of appreciation and were ordered to be entered on the minutes, as also was the report of the Matron, which was next taken up.

The election of officers being proceeded with in due course, resulted in Mr. Charles Hayward being again chosen as President, Mr. A. C. Flumerfelt as Honorary Treasurer, and Mr. John Jessop as Honorary Secretary.

The managers for the new year were also chosen, as below:

Rt. Rev. Bishop Cridge, E. C. Baker, A. C. Flumerfelt and Chas. Hayward—representing the Episcopalian Churches.

Rev. W. Leslie Clay, James Hutcheson, Thornton Fell and Robt. Erskine—from the Presbyterian Churches.

Rev. Solomon Cleaver, Noah Shakespeare, John Jessop and A. J. McLellan for the Methodist Churches.

The committee of ladies was elected with the following composing it:

Mrs. Charles Kent, Mrs. Charles Hayward, Mrs. J. D. Pemberton, and Miss Carr, Episcopalian Churches.

Mrs. G. A. Sargison, Mrs. J. W. Williams, Mrs. Thos. Earle, and Mrs. W. F. McCulloch Methodist Churches.

Mrs. J. Hutcheson, Mrs. G. L. Milne, Mrs. S. Clarke and Mrs. McGregor Presbyterian Churches.

After the appointment of a standing committee on finance consisting of E. Crow Baker, James Hutcheson, Noah Shakespeare and the officers (ex-officio), and the adoption of a cordial vote of thanks to the retiring officers, the meeting adjourned, the benediction being given by Bishop Cridge.

And I direct that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Institution shall be a sufficient discharge for the Legacy, which is to be applied to the general purposes of the said Institution.

2. Where Lands or Houses are concerned.

I give unto the Treasurer of the British Columbia Protestant Orphans' Home, in Victoria, B. C., all those lands, houses and premises known as (here describe them by situation, boundaries, extent and occupation as nearly as possible), to be sold or held by him as the Committee of Management may decide for the benefit of the said Institution.

(The Will or Codicil giving the bequest must be signed by the Testator, in the presence of two Witnesses, who must be present at the same time; and subscribe their names in his presence, and in the presence of each other.)
